

The Reformation at 500:

Is Grace Still the Answer?

Monday-Friday, July 10-14, 2017 – Craigville, Cape Cod, MASS

	Keynote Speaker: Professor Lee C. Barrett, Ph.D. The Mary B. and Henry P. Stager Chair in Theology and Professor of Systematic Theology at Lancaster Theological Seminary
	Bible Reflector: The Rev. Dr. Monica Dawkins-Smith Conference Minister, Penn Central Conference, United Church of Christ
	Presenter: Mr. Andrew Lang Executive Director, Open and Affirming Coalition, United Church of Christ
	Ecumenical Reflector: The Rev. Jonathan Linman, Ph.D. Assistant to the Bishop for Faith and Leadership Formation Metropolitan NY Synod, Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

The full-week colloquy experience includes:

Presentations, Bible reflections, daily worship services, small group discussions, singing in the choir, playing music, many ways to renew or make new friendships, hospitality events, meals, lodging, three continuing education units, and free time to rest and enjoy the beach and Cape Cod.

Follow us on the Internet & Facebook for more information:

www.craigvillecolloquy.com

www.facebook.com/craigville.colloquy

#CraigvilleTheologicalColloquy2017

craigville.theo.colloquy@gmail.com

#Colloquy2017

#ReformationGraceColloquy2017

2017 Colloquy co-moderators and contacts:

The Rev. Dr. F. Christopher Anderson (fcba@comcast.net)

Dr. Jane Ellingwood (dr.jane.ellingwood@gmail.com)